

thanks for entering

We're really psyched that you decided to enter our little contest. We're keeping our fingers crossed that you win ... true, we say that to everyone that enters, but for you - we really mean it!

We're going to make the big announcement on Monday, April 1st ... in the meantime, keep an eye on your news stream for our updates on everything going on in and around Greater Palm Springs.

Oh - and because we like you, we're also throwing some helpful links your way below.
